

Paul Hill is a talented and dedicated instrumentalist and instructor. His background in both performing and teaching is extensive. I have known and admired Mr. Hill for more than 30 years, since we were both students at Memphis State University. He is a man of high character, morals, and integrity. I am fully confident of Paul's ability in all musical arenas and hereby recommend him highly for any professional position available.

Mulgrew Miller
jazz pianist, composer
Director of Jazz Studies
William Paterson University
Wayne, New Jersey